

Lesson Plan

Name the materials used to make the following everyday item (some items might be made from more than one material).

These words will help you:

- Leather
- Glass
- Plastic
- Cotton
- Wood
- Rubber
- Metal

Desk

Tin

Pencil

Spectacles

Tire

Screw

Chain

Complete the sentences of change into your book.

Did these happen because of freezing, melting or solidifying?

- 1) An ice cube is accidentally dropped onto the kitchen table. In a short while, it turns into water. This is an example of: _____

- 2) Plastic, from a water bottle is dripping from a nearby bonfire. This is an example of: _____

- 3) An ice-cream begins to drip and turns liquid on a warm, sunny day. This is an example of: _____

- 4) An ice skater can ice skate on a canal in the winter time. This is an example of:_____

